Topic	Notes
Agenda Items:	Review and motion to approve the minutes of March 20, 2023
Round Table:	Year 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Question: Do students who reside outside of Toronto Ontario require a vulnerable sector check before starting clinic, or would a criminal background check be sufficient? Meghan Henesey: An update was sent to students from last year, the vulnerable sector check is required. However, allowance can be made for use of the criminal record check. Year 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Question: Is there a cap on the tuition increase, and by what percentage will it rise annually? Dr. Jasmine Carino: It is unclear whether there is a cap on tuition or not. However, when conversations are held at the SLT level, the team strives to be as reasonable as possible. I'll check to see if there is a cap. Meghan Henesey: The Academic Calendar contains the tuition for previous years and students can pull information from there to see how much tuition has increased by.• Students would like clarification on ANM150 assignment that is listed in the course outline since awaiting instructor response. Michelle Richea: Will follow up and report back to class rep. Year 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Question: Is it appropriate to request that lectures be recorded in advance and posted ahead of time?

	Dr. Nicole Henry: What is the rationale behind this request? Given the scheduling of the instructor, I am unable to determine whether they would be able to accommodate this request.
Updates:	Meghan Henesey: For students entering clinic, the deadline for registration is Friday, March 31, 2023. Dr. Jasmine Carino: At Boucher, there is a residency opportunity.
