Topic	Notes
Agenda Items:	Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND
Round Table:	Yr 1 - Shubcarmin Nijjar <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students are concerned about a palpation lab TA's borderline homophobic comments, students were told to look up answers on ChatGpt. Dr. Lumsden was informed of the situation. Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND: A follow up will be done with Dr. Lumsden. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> NMT100 – Nutrition test: Materials on food sensitivity and elimination diet that were not covered in class but were tested on. Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND: After the exam, an audit is typically conducted to make sure the questions were fair. Students are encouraged to send a message to the course Lead Instructor. Since this aspect is curriculum related, we will ask Ahmed Kandil to follow up with both campuses. Yr 2 – Jensen Pletch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Concerns have been raised about standardized patients; some students feel uncomfortable to volunteer to act as SPs.

Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND: This has been an area of interest for the past few years and it will be brought up again since it is coming up more frequently.

NSA – Loreal Legare

- Nothing to report.

Yr 3 – Craig Speers

- Question: When will the PCIS sensitive exams take place?

Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND: Students will receive their timetable, which will include a dedicated PCS class time, with allotted exam time.

NSA Student Advocate - Jonathan Tsang

- Nothing to report

Updates/announcements:

Dr. Jonathan Tokiwa, ND: Exam review process is being looked into and plans are being made for delivery in the winter term, January. Concerns regarding clinic and curriculum that were previously raised have been brought to the attention of Drs. Zeifman and Carino.

ETE300 and ETE340 will not be offered during the upcoming winter term due to limited enrolment. The three enrolled students will be contacted directly by the Registrar's Office.

Due to final examinations, the next ADNSA meeting, which had originally been scheduled for Monday, December 16, 2024, will be cancelled.

Dr. Nicole Henry, ND: For the year one in-class exam reviews, we are in dialogue with the instructor for CMS100, and one student currently has a test outstanding for BMS100.

Ahmed Kandil: Course feedback surveys opened last week and will close on Friday, December 6, 2024, an email reminder will be sent out, please encourage participation.

Meeting adjourned by Dr. Tokiwa, ND
